

As Good As New

Introducing: a new line of remanufactured cartridges that represents that higher standard of color fidelity and compatibility so necessary in the wide-format, high-end advertising and art markets. You won't be able to tell the difference from the OEM. Except for the price.

Experience the best from Image Specialists, America's leader in compatible inks: providing stable, reliable performance, accurate, true-profile imaging and enhanced value in every product.

Buy our cartridges with confidence. Total satisfaction guarantee is obtained through rigid testing and quality control for all components, including fail proof replacement chips.

Add these values to our unfailing traditional attention to product availability and customer service, and you'll have every reason to try Image Specialists.
